Dedication

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time."

We, the Annual Staff of Deep River, dedicate this 1972 edition of the DEMON'S DIARY to you, Class of '72.

Wash, Greasing and Tune-up

We, the Seniors, being of sound mind and body, do, in this year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and seventy two, will and bequeath the following:

I, William Wicker, do leave my driving ability to Mamie Gunter and my intellectual ability to my brother, Willie. Pam, I'll keep forever.
I, Sharon Williams, do leave my superlative "Most Likely to Succeed" to my brother, Rusty, and my wig to anyone who can keep it on longer than I did. My memories of good ole D.R. I'll take with me.
I, Marvin Harris, do leave, I hope.
I, Pam Wood, do leave my superlative "Most Athletic" to my sister, Pat, and my ability to use my head to Sharon Seagroves.
I, Danny Henry, do leave my position on the basketball team to "bro Gil."
I, Pam Hurley, do leave my ability to get along with others to my two brothers. Ronnie, I'll cherish forever.
I, Daria Lyczkowski, do leave my ability to stay out of trouble to Regina Campbell and my superlative "Best School Spirit" to Debbie Rattz. Ronnie, I'll keep with me forever.
I, Gary Williams, do leave my superlative "Biggest Flirt" to my nephew, Forrest and my hair to Mr. Ragan.
I, Gail Hart, do leave my ability to skip school and not get caught to Dale Atkins.
I, Charlene Jackson, do leave my ability to "rap" to my brother, Tim, but my ability to "jive" to all girls.
I, Ricky Matthews, do leave my ability to get along with teachers to Scott Harrington.
I, Cathy Wicker, do leave my superlative "Neatest" to my brother, Mark, and my Shorthand book to anyone who wants gray hair.
I, Milton Toomer, do leave my talented and straight forward ability to Anthony Seymore and all the other brothers.
I, Mary Jon Dowdy, do leave my superlative "Biggest Flirt" to Mary Lee Setzer and my title, Chief Cheerleader to Debbie Harrington. All my memories of a little red "Javelin" I'll take with me.
I, Robert Norwood, do leave my ability to fly to Andy Ammons and my superlative "Most Likely to Succeed" to Mr. Harold Wood.
I, Betty McCutchen, do leave my ability to stay out of trouble to my brothers and sisters.
I, Phillip Poindexter, do leave the premises of D.R.H.S.
I, David Bridges, do leave my superlative "Most Intelligent" to my brother, Craig, because he'll need it. My car and money I'll keep.
I, Douglas Saunders, do leave my ability to finish school to my brother and sister.
I, Bruce Moore, do leave my superlative "Best School Spirit" to my brother, Michael.
I, Wilma Feaster, do leave my superlative "Most Talkative" to my sister, Carolyn.
I, Eric Stackpole, do leave my grand new bus to my brother, Andrew.
I, Carolyn Mcdonald, do leave my ability to cope with school situations to anybody who can take it.
I, Donald Thomas, do leave my bus No. 42 to anyone who thinks he can keep it clean enough to suit Mr. Wood.
I, Debbie Sloan, do leave my superlative "Most Dependable" to my brother, Don and my ability to stay out of trouble to my sister, Darlene.
I, Max Smith, do leave my inability to get along with Mr. Ragan to anyone that can handle it.
I, Sharon Cagle, do leave my ability to finish school to my brothers and my superlative "Miss Senior Class" to Debbie Harrington. Gary, I'll keep forever.
I, Charles Thomas, do leave my ability to get along with Mr. Ragan to anyone who needs it.
I, Lavon Carroll, do leave my ability to finish school to my son, Chris and my brothers, Danny and Allen. Roy, I'll keep forever.
I, Edward Smith, do leave my position on the basketball team to Kenny Norwood and my superlative to Phillip Beal. Carol, I'll keep.
I Claretta Johnson, do leave my ability to keep what I have to all of those who seek it.
I, Diana Huddleston, do leave my ability to finish school to my sister, Dreama and my nephew, Randy.
I, Dena Wicker, do leave my superlative "Most Talented" to my brother, Billy and my craziness to Connie Hall.
I, James Crump, do leave my ability to play basketball to Bernard Crump.
I, Sue Ragan, do leave my crazy actions to Teresa Yow, my radical ideas to Freddie Atkins, my love for State to R.V. Hight, and the Editor of the Yearbook to anyone who likes nervous breakdowns.
I, John Battle, do leave my ability in love and sports to my younger brother, Donnie, and all the other soul brothers that need it.
